

Company Policy

P-QHSE-01

Nile Waterproofing Materials Co. "Bitunil" – working in the manufacturing and marketing of modified bituminous membranes with insulating polymers for water and humidity – aims to achieve the highest standards required by the international standards for quality, environmental, occupational health and safety to maintain the health and safety of all workers and the surrounding environment. Moreover, Bitunil aims to satisfy its customers and other interested parties based on the following:

- Understanding customer requirements clearly and providing products that meet their needs and expectations.
- Providing products that compete with local and international markets.
- Committing to set objectives for quality, environmental, occupational health and safety management systems and to review these objectives annually.
- Achieving continual communication, training, and development of human resources at all levels to improve their competence and get full awareness of the requirements of the quality, environmental, occupational health and safety management systems.
- Maintaining and continual improvement of the performance of the quality, environmental, occupational health and safety management systems to meet the requirements of the international standards in all work places.
- Defining and controlling the internal and external issues that affect the work, meeting the needs and expectations of the company interested parties and the effective management of the risks and opportunities.

• Working on:

- Implementing all programs related to hazard prevention, accident prevention, prevention and reduction of occupational ill health and risks that affect the health and safety of all workers, customers and other interested parties.
- Committing to the participation and consultation of workers and their representatives.
- Providing a clean and safe working environment and effective management of environmental issues.
- Committing to environmental protection by preventing pollution while preserving the sustainability of natural resources.
- Committing to laws, regulations and other requirements which the company follows.

• Continual development:

- Providing human, physical resources and appropriate technical support for this policy.
- Conduct periodic audits for the requirements of quality, environmental, occupational health and safety management systems to ensure the effective application of these requirements and their continual improvement and development.
- The annual review of the company policy and ensure its accessibility & clarity to all the company workers and other interested parties.

Eng. Hesham EL-Banhawi
Chairman & Managing Director

AG
R